Woodlawn Farmers' Club.

[Reported for the Alexandria Gazette.] The Wood'awn Farmers' Club met April 9 b, at "Cameror," the residence of Mrs. Robert Roberts, A. N. Harrison was called to the chair and E. E. Mason elected secretary. After hearing a report from the committee on management of farmers' institute, by request, Hon. N. M. Curtis gave his views on a bill before Congress introduced by himself aboltshing capital punishment the arguments he presented were well worthy of consideration, in view of the fact that the burden of oriminal prosecutions fall so heavily upon us as tax payers, and in the new era now said to be dawning upon us as a profession when we are to exercise so potent an influence in the councils of our State and nation, it is right and proper that we should inform ourselves on all entjects affecting the body politic. It is lamentably true that on most subjects outside our immediate calling we are decidedly ignorant and do but show our nakedness when we attempt to talk about or legislate on matters with which we are not familiar or upon which we have given no thought or sudy.
This farm is now carried on by James W.
Roberts, youngest son of Robert Roberts, who bought and settled here some 44 years ago, during that time it has, with but a short interval, been kept as a milk dairy and long years before the much puffed up Alderney dairy was started in Washington farnished milk of the finest quality to both the cities. The son keeps up the reputation established by the father, and we may say, without intending any fulsame firstery, that he is conrations so that he has but few equals in the line of his business. There are but few farmers, considering the number of acres cultivated, whose cash sales outside the dairy interests amount to as much as that of our hout. He is now puting up a large building as a borse barn with carriage house and feed rooms which, when finished, will be Steam Flooring & Planing Mill quite an improvement to the place. The next meeting of the club will be at Mre.

The Faith Christ in Jail. The negress, Louisa Garland, who claims to be able to heal by faith, and who has cre ated so much excitement among the colored people in the Fourth ward, was before the Police Court Monday morning to answer the charge of drugging a colored man named Feiton, whose wife swore out a warrant against Louise and caused her arrest on Saturday. Felton had been at the home of BIBLE, you may not have seen any just like it before. Saturday. Felton had been at the home of the accused for some time and could not, it was alleged, get away. The trial of the case developed the fact that the reason for his remaining at the woman's house was that she had burned his clothes (apon his order, she stated), and had dressed him in a white She denied having drugged any one or baying done anything wrong, but the court concluded, from the women's own statemens as to her ability to cure by faith, that she was a disturbing element among the colored people of Norfolk and sent her to jail in default of a bond of $200 for her good behavior. The justice sgreed, however, to release her at any time that she will currentles to leave the city. She came here guarantee to leave the city. She came here just before iss: Christmas from Philadelphia, and her home is on St. Paul street. The trial this morning drew to the courthouse a great crowd of colored people. She made an exhortation to the prisoners in jail Sunday afternoon and went into what she ciaimed was a trance, remaining apparently unconscious for fifteen minu es .- Norfolk Ledger.
